

I understand Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary right before the election.

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, isn't it obligated by law to serve the public interest? Showing both sides of the issue -- equal time -- is the responsible thing to do.

I suggest we strengthen the rules of ownership. But meanwhile, can't something be done about this? It's frighteningly unethical.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Katz
